

Halderman: Now is the time to have the oil and oil filter changed. I recommend that the oil be changed four times a year at each change of season rather than by mileage because a little short-trip driving is harder on the engine and oil than long trips.

