

NOTE: Using a spare tire on the drive wheel could cause the traction control and/or ESC amber warning light to flash because the controller is seeing that the smaller tire is rotating faster than the other side.
