

Name _____

MULTIPLE CHOICE. Choose the one alternative that best completes the statement or answers the question.

- 1) Which of these brake fluids has the highest boiling point? 1) _____
 - A) DOT 5.1
 - B) DOT 4
 - C) DOT 3
 - D) None of these

- 2) Windshield washer fluid looks like blue water and is actually water mixed with _____ to prevent freezing and to help clean the windshield. 2) _____
 - A) anti-freeze
 - B) an alcohol (methanol) additive
 - C) silica
 - D) soap

- 3) The cabin filter can be accessed from _____. 3) _____
 - A) under the hood on some vehicles
 - B) under the dash on some vehicles
 - C) under the vehicle on some vehicles
 - D) either A or B

- 4) Windshield wiper blades are constructed of _____ and tend to become brittle due to age. 4) _____
 - A) rubber
 - B) nylon
 - C) cork
 - D) brushes

- 5) The use of diesel exhaust fluid (DEF) in a vehicle equipped with a diesel engine is used to reduce _____ emissions. 5) _____
 - A) NO_x
 - B) HC
 - C) CO
 - D) All of the above

- 6) Before draining a manual transmission to replace the fluid, what should the technician do first? 6) _____
 - A) Check service information for the specified fluid.
 - B) Check to see if the fill plug can be removed.
 - C) Purchase SAE 80W-90 gear lube.
 - D) Both A and B

- 7) One type of power steering fluid is generally used for all vehicles. 7) _____
 - A) True
 - B) False

- 8) DOT 4 brake fluid _____. 8) _____
- A) absorbs water vapor at a slower rate than DOT 3
 - B) costs about twice as much as DOT 3
 - C) both A and B
 - D) neither A nor B
- 9) Checking automatic transmission fluid level is easy, since they all have a dipstick. 9) _____
- A) True
 - B) False
- 10) Routine service includes _____. 10) _____
- A) checking all safety related items
 - B) replacing wiper blades as needed
 - C) replacing cabin and air filters as needed
 - D) all of the above